So Blest

*So blest! So blest!
With scarlet sunset in the skies -
Birds that sing on wing so high,
The fragrance of the flowers,
sweet;*

And precious people that we meet.

So blest! So blest!

*When music swells my heart within -
An old familiar lasting hymn;
When tiny heads are bent - hands clasp
And little voice our blessings ask.*

So blest! So blest!

*Simple pleasures seem much more
When we approach Eternity's door -
Each day our hearts can thankful be
For blessed hours spent with Thee.*

So blest! So very blest to be Born in a land that's brave and free;

*Born to a family loving Thee.
The things I could not choose,
but do -*

Born with a heart for loving You.

*So when at last, I lay me down
I'll rise and see my robe and crown -
A Crystal Sea ...and Jasper walls...
I won't mind coming home at all
For I have been... so blest! So blest!*

FUNDRAISER

We will be kicking-off our annual Academy fundraiser on Monday, October 31. Our goal is $5000 dollars, and the money will go toward classroom improvements and technology upgrades. Please do your best as this is the only All-Academy fundraiser we will do all year. Thank you for all the various means of support throughout the year!

REMINDERS

- October 31 - Fundraiser Kick-Off
- November 10-13 - Fall Choir Tour, CANCELLED
- November 17 - Thanksgiving Lunch
- November 23-27 - Thanksgiving Break

THANK YOU

Thank you for taking the time to meet with the faculty at Parent/Teacher Conferences. We appreciate your interest and support. Please take the time to talk to us anytime you may have a concern.

PRINCIPAL'S PUZZLER

This week's winner: No One

This week's hint: Think messenger!

This week's puzzle: An ordinary American citizen, with no passport, visits over thirty foreign countries in one day. He is welcomed in each country and leaves each one of his own accord.
