

ACADEMY REPORTER

The best part of the trip to the Creation Museum was...

...all the solid proofs of creation and seeing it in a new way. Brent Whitaker

...the drama presentation The Last Adam. I think they did an awesome job of presenting the gospel story.

Hannah Frausto

...the insight to many Bible passages that I had never considered before. It was great seeing and reading the truth of God's Word. Mr. Herring

...the planetarium. It was cool to see all of the stars and planets at "close distance." The exhibits were very life-like, and all of the shows were very entertaining. NW

...looking around and watching in the theatres because it all reminded me of God's amazing creation. Lorraine Asbury

...the planetarium and Men in White; they were both enjoyable to watch. Trent Welbaum

...the sound effects theatre and the dinosaurs and the food. Jacob Blocher

...the planetarium and the special effects theatre. Rebecca Pyle

...the planetarium and the special effects theatre was really neat too. Morgan Martin

...the planetarium; I enjoyed it immensely. It shows how big God really is and how small we are. I also enjoyed Men in White. Evie Black

...the planetarium. It shows the wonder of God's creation. I also liked Men in White. Desirae Snider

...Men in White, and the planetarium was really good. The museum is a great place; we should thank the Lord for it!! Shane Fish

...the planetarium or feeding the fish. Seth Welbaum

...the gardens. Missy Blocher

...the planetarium and the creation presentations. Joe Tartar

...the planetarium, Men in White, and the videos of the family in the Corruption section. Jonathan Wright

...the garden; it is a very nice place to just walk around and talk in. Joanna McBryant

...the museum in general. It was very interesting! Mrs. Snider

...the planetarium, Men in White, and the shark teeth. Dustin Snider
