PREVIEW DAYS PERSPECTIVES

Preview Days were a blast! They showed me how next year was going to be. Ashley Smith

Two enthusiastic thumbs up! Five stars! Jon Leach

This year's Preview Days was the best I've been to, and this was my fourth. Everyone seemed to work harder this year. Great Job! Annalisa Sheckell

I really liked the skits and visiting the classes.
Chris Moreland

I enjoyed seeing all the new faces. Becky Fish

Preview Days are always a great time of fun and excitement, meeting new people, and allowing others to see what Union Bible College is all about. Felicia Staley

The ministerial legacy and leadership of Preview Days has been a great influence and inspiration in my life.
Tim Cole

I'm convinced that UBC is the place for me! Matt Hoard

Preview Days is the best ever. I hope to enroll this fall.
Brittany Fry

This Preview Days is going great! We have prospective students that are serious about life and ministry. Seven of them have told me they are coming this fall.
Mark Heskett

It's been very uplifting. Everyone makes you feel welcome. It is also very fun! Jerusha Emery

Preview Days has always been one of the top highlights of my year. It gives us a chance to hang out with the prospective students and get to know them. Aaron Brown

The Principal's Puzzler

This week's winner: No One

This week's hint: It wasn't for the customer.

This week's puzzle: It is assumed that stores set prices just under a round figure because the price seems lower to the consumer, e.g. $9.99 instead of $10.00. But this is not the reason the practice started. What was the original reason for this pricing method?
