

The Union Bible Academy August 28, 2009
ACADEMY REPORTER

FROM OUR NEW STUDENTS & TEACHERS

The thing that I like best about Union Bible Academy is...

- ...Algebra II class and choir. Missie Blocher
- ...being able to be in a classroom with other students who believe the way I do. Joseph Tartar
- ...the fellowship and spiritual encouragement. Mrs. LePage
- ...the fellowship and Christian atmosphere. Lanae Whitaker
- ...being so close to leaders who are devoted to God. Beth Blocher
- ...being around youth my age. Justin LePage
- ...the good environment. I love the style of classes and teaching. Brent Whitaker
- ...my students. They are fun to teach. I also enjoy being with other Christians. Mrs. Blocher
- ...learning to read. Tiffany Smith
- ...Christian friends and a good church. Nathan LePage
- ...PE class. Henry Park
- ...interacting with my students and fellow teachers. Miss Harris
- ...playing games. Levi Brown
- ...break and making new friends. Jonathan LePage
- ...the fun with our new teacher. Math is a little hard, but she helps us with it. I have fun with my friends. This school is awesome! Jonathan Herron
- ...being around youth my age. Justin LePage
- ...the privilege to teach and build relationships with the children. Miss Brinkmann
- ...math class. Samuel Park
- ...Spanish class. It is fun to speak another language and may be beneficial later on. Kaitlyn Herron
- ...PE class. Jacob Blocher
- ...the friendly atmosphere in the classroom and even after school. The kids and teachers all make it feel great to be in school. Benjamin LePage

Thank you to all of you for making our new teachers and students feel welcome.

THE PRINCIPAL'S PUZZLER

The first student to give the written answer to the Principal's Puzzler to Mr. Pickett each week receives a free candy bar or pop from the snack bar.

This week's puzzle: You are on an ocean cruise and encounter a yacht with several corpses floating around it. None of them appear to have been victims of violence, i.e. shot, stabbed, etc. What happened?

ROOM PARENTS NEEDED

The PTF needs volunteers for room parents. Please contact Louise Martin as soon as possible if you are able to assist in this way. Room parents help teachers coordinate activities throughout the school year. You may reach her at (317) 758-1654 or leave a message at the school office.
